

People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

Embassy of Algeria in the Republic of Namibia

Press Review

21st August 2020

www.embassyofalgeria-namibia.org

21st August 2020

DOMESTIC NEWS

49 would-be immigrants arrested off Mostaganem

MOSTAGANEM - Coastguard units foiled, on Thursday night, off the coast of Mostaganem several attempts of illegal migration and arrested 49 individuals, including foreigners, said this security body.

During patrols conducted between 10.00 p.m. and 3.00 a.m., the coastguards intercepted, in the north of the commercial port of Mostaganem and off the east coast of the province, three groups of would-be immigrants in makeshift boats, said the source.

The arrested people, including 3 foreigners, 4 minors and a woman were taken to the province's commercial port where units of the Civil Protection took charge of them.

They will be delivered to the competent security services and will be then brought to court, added the source.

Phase experienced by Algeria is exceptional, requires outstanding efforts

ALGIERS - The phase experienced by the country is exceptional and requires outstanding efforts and huge sacrifices, underlined Friday Chief of Staff of the People's National Army Lieutenant General Said Chanegriha in a working visit to the Military Academy of Cherchell "late President Houari Boumediene."

"The phase is exceptional and requires outstanding efforts from everyone and huge sacrifices and the nation greatly needs, today more than ever, loyalty in words and actions, and to raise the country's interest above all," said an orientation speech in a meeting with the officials, teachers and students of the Academy, on the eve of the annual graduation ceremony of this prestigious training structure that will be held tomorrow.

He underlined the major importance of training in the professional career of the officers in the future, as it is the period that will enable them to promote their intellectual, mental, cognitive, moral, psychological and even physical capacities, urging them to "be faithful to the nation to enable our country to take up all the challenges."

FOREIGN POLICY NEWS

Chenine emphasizes Algeria's role in peace, security in Africa

ALGIERS - Chairman of the People's National Assembly (Lower House) Slimane Chenine on Thursday emphasized Algeria's efficient role in the establishment of peace and security in Africa, the promotion of a joint action and the peaceful resolution of conflicts under full respect for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of States.

Algerian Embassy in Windhoek

Speaking at ahead of the 5th Summit of Parliamentarians, Chenine referred to “the efficient role Algeria plays in the establishment of peace and security in Africa, the promotion of a joint African action and the settlement of conflicts through peaceful means under full respect for the sovereignty of States and their territorial integrity while favouring national dialogue that leads to consensus, with neither violence nor exclusion.”

Algeria is equidistant vis-à-vis all Libyan parities and seeks to help them to find solutions to the crisis by peaceful means, with neither violence nor foreign interference, and to preserve the country’s territorial and social unity,” said the Lower House speaker.

“In addition, Algeria supports the right of the Palestinian people to an independent State with Al-Quds as capital city, in accordance with the resolutions adopted by the United Nations,” he continued. Chenine also referred to Algeria’s approach in strengthening “human solidarity and development in African countries.”

The creation of the Algerian Agency for International Cooperation, initiated by President of the Republic Abdelmadjid Tebboune, aims at “establishing an international cooperation likely to help African brothers to enhance their material and human capacities,” recalled the same official.

MISCELLANEOUS

SPORT

Football - CAN 2021: Qualifiers to resume in November

CAIRO - The qualifiers of the African Cup of Nations (CAN-2021), suspended due to the new coronavirus pandemic (Covid-19), will resume in next November with the organization of the third and fourth Days, announced Wednesday the Confederation of African Football (CAF) on its official website.

The CAF Emergency Committee has also approved the resumption date for qualifiers of the Total Africa Cup of Nations Cameroon 2021 and the group stage of the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022.

“A busy schedule awaits the participating teams with double-headers from November 2020 through to November 2021 in the battle for spots to the final tournament of the two competitions,” CAF said.

“For Cameroon 2021, the qualifiers resume on 9-17 November 2020 with the Day 3 and 4 matches whilst the penultimate and ultimate matches take place on 22-30 March 2021,” said the source.